Attached are our recommendations for video presentations. Also, Godfather II and Singing in the Rain should be included (as with any list of good videos), though they are not on the original offerings ;-)

Sam et al.

Please let us know when/if you resolve the debate on this e-mail string re: food web considerations. If food web effects due to invasive species and nutrient/contaminant effects (that have been covered in the previous workshop) are back in, then we have additional readings we would recommend.

Thanks,
JR
